Jackie Bailey-Tucker holds the position of Managing Director, Approved 4 Business.com

She set up the business whilst working at Thomas Cook Airlines where she had worked in purchasing for 5 years dealing with initial provisioning, stock replenishment, repairs, and warranty and supplier approvals. She initiated and controlled the Approved Supplier list; ensuring only suppliers with requisite quality approvals were listed.

Prior to that Ms Bailey-Tucker worked for Airtours International (later Mytravel Airways) as Material Controller and was then promoted to Material Supervisor (1996 -2002). In addition to working with all Material related issues she was a leading member of the step-change team, tasked with reducing delays and improving customer service for the airline.

She joined Airtours following 5 years at Air 2000 (later First Choice Airways) where she started her aviation career, involved with all aspects of Material Control.

Before her airline career she worked for National Westminster Bank and Shell U.K. Materials.

Jackie Bailey Tucker received her upper second class Honors Degree in Business from Manchester Metropolitan University in 1996.
